

GLOBAL TRENDS FOR REGULATING PLATFORMS

WEBINAR SERIES April 15th 2021, 16:00 ~ 17:00

SAPI's DAIG Magazine launched a serial inquiry in to the regulatory issues surrounding digital platforms in December 2020. As part of the inquiry, we are pleased to announce a series of online seminars that will cover major regulatory initiatives in Europe, U.S., China, Japan and Australia featuring legal experts from the respective jurisdictions.

In continuation of our previous discussion about Europe, our second session addresses China's Antimonopoly Guidelines for the Platform Economy.

※ The webinar will be conducted in English.

Series II China's Antimonopoly Guidelines for the Platform Economy

Moderator: Yong Lim (Associate Professor, Seoul National University)

Bingwan Xiong Associate professor, Law School / Renmin University

China's Antimonopoly Guidelines for the Platform Economy
: 关于平台经济领域的反垄断指南

Upcoming Series

Series I March 11th

- European Commission Proposals to Regulate the Digital Sector
- Germany's Legislative Reform for Competition in Digital Markets: GWB-Digitalisierungsgesetz

Series III May 13th

- California's New Privacy Protection & Rights Regime
- Australia's News Media Bargaining Code

Series IV June 4th

- Japan's Digital Platform Transparency & Fairness Act

TO REGISTER

<https://forms.gle/Zy7tAr1D3Vb48kKM9>

Participants with registration will be received additional information regarding Webinar by email.
Inquiry_woojungb@snu.ac.kr