

GLOBAL TRENDS FOR REGULATING PLATFORMS

WEBINAR SERIES

SAPI's DAIG Magazine launched a serial inquiry in to the regulatory issues regarding digital platforms in December 2020. As part of this inquiry, we are pleased to announce a series of online seminars that will cover major regulatory initiatives in Europe, U.S., China, Japan and Australia featuring legal experts from the respective jurisdictions.

In our third session, the discussion will focus on U.S California State's Privacy Laws(CCPA, CPRA) and Australia's New Media Bargaining Code.

We hope that many of those interested will join us for the Webinar. Questions to the speakers can be posed in advance via the registration web page.

※ This Webinar will be conducted in English.

Series III U.S & Australia

May 13th 2021, 14:00 ~ 15:30

Moderator: Yong Lim (Associate Professor, Seoul National University)

Baskaran Balasingham

Assistant Professor
Utrecht University

Addressing News Media sector :
News Media Bargaining Code

Lisa KIM

Deputy Attorney General
Privacy Enforcement and
Protection Unit of the Consumer
Protection Section
California Department of Justice

California State, US, A Leading privacy regulator :
California Privacy Laws(CCPA, CPRA)

Series I March 11th

- European Commission Proposals to Regulate the Digital Sector
- Germany's Legislative Reform for Competition in Digital Markets: GWB-Digitalisierungsgesetz

Series II April 15th

- China's Antimonopoly Guidelines for the Platform Economy

Series IV June 4th

- Japan's Digital Platform Transparency & Fairness Act

TO REGISTER

<https://forms.gle/4FUZIGsokmLfeodN6>

Participants with registration will be received additional information regarding Webinar by email.
Inquiry_ wojungb@snu.ac.kr